Neighbourhood Watch Report (Cllr John Pullen, 01983 281250)

Although there have been no serious crime incidents in the village, the police have asked me to remind everyone to ensure that sheds and garages are securely locked. I have a leaflet that details how to make sure your shed and small building are secure and a form on which you can list the items stored inside, i.e. tools, bikes. This record will help to check any missing items. Please ring me if you require one.

There are still scams going around, particularly telephone ones, supposedly from BT. Do not be fooled by these callers, who threaten to cut you off if you do not comply.

There is a seminar at the Riverside Centre on the 20th of April on illegal money lending and loan sharks. This starts at 10am. I shall report back in future bulletins.

There has been a cold caller in the village from a food company. He has been challenged by villagers and has moved on to Gurnard. This has been referred to Trading Standards.

Late news: A van was taken from Pallance Road. The driver left his keys in the van and it was driven away. The van was later found abandoned, but missing all the driver's tools.

Please DO NOT leave keys in unattended vehicles, even on your driveway.

No Cold Calling

I still have a small supply of the 'No Cold Calling' window stickers if anybody needs one. Please let me know of any incidents of people cold calling, or ring Trading Standards on 01983 823370.

Ring 01983 281250 if you are interested in the black or green recycling bins.

Police Contact Numbers

The 08450454545 number for the Police enquiries is still active, but being phased out in favour of 101

Use 999 for emergencies; Use 101 for all non-urgent matters, or to report:

Vandalism and Graffiti - Noise Nuisance; Threatening and Abusive behaviour; Abandoned vehicles; Dumping and Fly Tipping; Drunk and Rowdy Groups; Broken Street lighting; Drug related Anti-Social behaviour.
Do not forget Crime stoppers on 0800 555 111.

You do not need to identify yourselves and the calls are not recorded.

The Peculiarities of a Parish Council (Cllr Colin Cramp, 01983 289996)

- A parish council can be established if just 10% of the electorate want one. They sign a petition, and then central government are almost certain to approve it.
- A person residing within 3 miles of the parish boundary can qualify to be a councillor. So theoretically the whole of Northwood Parish Council could be made up of people from East Cowes.
- A parish council is prohibited from meeting before 6pm even if all of the members wish to meet at an earlier time.
- The agenda and papers for each meeting must be delivered to each councillor in hard copy. Even for Northwood this is dozens of sheets of paper each month for each councillor. Distributing it electronically (e.g. by email) is not allowed. The agenda is a summons to the councillors to attend the meeting.
- The council does not have to hold its meetings within the parish. Northwood Parish Council could meet in Portsmouth if it so wished!
- A parish council is instructed to hold two annual meetings a year around each April / May. One is called the Annual General Meeting, the other the Annual Meeting of the Parish.
- A parish council does not have any powers except to set a precept and spend the money.
- To get rid of a council, even if the overwhelming majority of the electorate vote to abolish it, is extremely difficult.

Rita Goddard, Lay Minister
c/o The Rectory, Chawton Lane, Northwood

Driving around the Island during the middle of April was an exceedingly pleasant experience, particularly, if like me you are fond of daffodils. This year's displays along the hedgerows have been magnificent. The colours of the daffodils have appeared more vibrant than most years. Maybe I've just taken more time to appreciate them. Maybe it had something to do with the winter snow and frost delaying their flowering. Whatever the reason they lifted my spirits on many a day, even more so, if there were primroses intermingled with them. What a wonderful display of new life!

How appropriate that this year the new life witnessed in the spring flowers coincided with Easter. Easter is that time in the church's calendar when Christians celebrate the new life given to Jesus Christ as God raised him from the dead after his crucifixion. That new life, the resurrection life, as many Christians call it, is not exclusively owned by Jesus Christ. Rather, it is also given to all those who believe and trust in him.

Unfortunately the beautiful daffodils, primroses and other spring flowers soon fade and become bedraggled. The hedgerows become a bit scruffy until the plants die down completely. This is in complete contrast to the new life to be found in Jesus Christ. As we continue trusting God that new life he has imparted to us remains and grows within us. Think of the contrast between the vibrantly bright new daffodil and the limp, bedraggled one. Maybe we sometimes feel like that bedraggled one, past its 'sell by date'! Let me encourage you that the new life God has given is alive and well!

Whilst we are on the subject of daffodils – let me share another thought with you. Recently, when on retreat, I was asked to choose a colour I might associate with someone calling my name. I'm not that imaginative but I entered into the spirit of the exercise and came up with the colour yellow. I was then asked to identify a colour which symbolised God calling my name. Harder still! Interestingly, after some thought I chose orange. These two colours formed the base of a piece of artwork through which God could speak.

It was an interesting exercise and one with which you may or may not agree. Perhaps you would like to try it sometime. When someone uses our name, we often feel special and full of self-worth. How much more powerful when God calls us by name. There is a lovely verse in the bible, in Isaiah chapter 43. God says "Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine." A new redeemed life coupled with God calling our name.

One final thought. After that exercise yellow and orange have become quite significant colours for me. Maybe that's why I've appreciated the daffodils even more this year.

With every blessing.
