

RULES:

We will not accept postings using inappropriate language or making personal accusations of a defamatory nature.

Any such material sent will not be posted, neither will material that is deemed unsuitable by a moderator for any other reason, and correspondence resulting from a rejection will not be entered into.

Any views or opinions presented in the threads and comments are solely those of the author and do not represent those of Northwood Village Website.

NOTES:

Please note that the threads and comments posted prior to 24th August 2011 may contain inaccurate information with regard to the date of posting, (i.e. the "Posted on" references) as all the posts had been lost by the previous hosting company. These have now been recovered, but the "Posted on" date may be missing or may carry the date on which it was recovered. The originators' names have also now been recovered and appended to their relevant threads and comments.

And finally, please be aware that with this system responders can reply to either the overall thread post or to the individual comments, so a reply to the overall thread will result in the comment appearing at the top of the comments, whereas a reply to an individual comment will result in the comment appearing beneath the relevant chosen comment. I only add this note to clarify this as some people have queried why their comments are not appearing at the top. So if you want your comment to appear at the top, please use the large Reply box at the bottom of every post.
