THE WOMEN'S WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

On Friday 5th March over 3 million people world-wide will be praying and worshipping together during an annual day of prayer, using a service prepared by Christian women in Cameroon.

Emma Wilcock, president of the National Committee of the Women's World Day of Prayer movement, said:

"This is always an exciting day as a great wave of prayer sweeps the world, beginning when the first service is held in the Queen Salote Girls' School in Tonga and continuing around the world until the final service takes place, some 35 hours later, in neighbouring Western Samoa. By then the day will have been celebrated in over 170 countries and over 5,000 services will have been held in the United Kingdom.

The Republic of Cameroon is said to be Africa in miniature. It is a country of great cultural diversity with more than 240 ethnic groups and languages. It faces many challenges as its people seek to move forward into a modern age without losing their distinctive characteristics. But at all times, in all circumstances, Cameroonians are able to praise God with joy and exuberance and the service reflects this."

In Cowes, this annual ecumenical service will take place at St Thomas of Canterbury RC Church at 11.00am on Friday 5th March. This year's speaker will be our own Archdeacon Caroline Baston. The service will be followed by a bring and share lunch; there will also be a Traidcraft stall. All, both men and women, are invited to join in this day of prayer.

Cold Weather Payments

If you are in receipt of a means-tested benefit (e.g. Pension Credit, Income Support), you are entitled to Cold Weather Payments. You will get £25 when the average temperature where you live is recorded as, or forecast to be, zero degrees Celsius or below over seven consecutive days. In Northwood, at the time of writing (January 14), this has triggered one payment of £25. You do not have to apply, the payment is made automatically. If you think you should have received a Cold Weather Payment but you have not received one by the time you read this, tell your pension centre (telephone 0800 991234) or JobCentre Plus (Broadlands House, Newport, telephone 273000).

FOOD - WASTED COLLECTIONS?

(Laura Kay, Waste Minimisation and Recycling Officer, Isle of Wight Council)

Since the closure of the in-vessel composter at Lynnbottom in September 2009, there has been some confusion over what happens to food waste collected in the green bucket. Previously, green buckets were collected separately into the green pod on the side of the refuse vehicles and composted at high temperature in the in-vessel composter. A change in legislation led to the composter being closed back in September but residents are still being asked to separate their food waste into the green bucket.

Green bucket waste is still collected separately in the green pod on the side of the refuse vehicles, and is currently mixed with flocculent fuel (made of the combustible fraction of your ordinary rubbish) and used in the gasification plant to generate energy on the Island.

Although some organic waste is extracted through the mechanical process that sorts your ordinary rubbish, it is more efficient if food waste is kept separate via the green bucket – this efficiency means less food waste ending up in landfill.

We by no means have full participation in the green bucket scheme so if you don't have a (free) green bucket to separate your food waste, call 01983 823777 or go online iwight.com/waste to order! (John Pullen, Chair of the Parish Council, can also supply them locally)

But I don't have that much food waste...

A study last year showed us that up to 35% of the Island's rubbish bags is food waste which could have been separated for recycling. Take note as you scrape your plate and discard that last black banana. It's not just feeding your bin bag, it could be costing you up to £680 a year! The message is, reduce food waste as much as you can and recycle those unappetising fish bones and egg shells in your green bucket. Lovefoodhatewaste.com is a great website with ideas and recipes for reducing food waste.

But I compost my food waste at home...

I'm a great advocate of home composting – you can find loads of hints and tips on our website iwight.com/waste but things that you'd keep out of the home compost, like meat and dairy products, can still go in your green bucket.

REPORT - FEBRUARY 2010

My report this month is on the settlement of my village green application on terms agreed with the landowners which will be placed before the Council's General Purposes Committee for approval on either the 8th February or possibly earlier if a suitable date can be agreed.

I have spoken to a majority of residents who have made statements in support of the application and they have told me they will support the settlement terms, recognising the possibility of the whole application being dismissed on legal or evidential issues.

We have agreed that the lower two-fifths of the field that is the part next to the Pallance Road footpath will be legally granted village green status with the dividing line straightened to give a parallel boundary, facilitating the existing agricultural letting, which continues over the whole field as before.

The difference between these agreed terms and those originally recommended to the Committee is that the landowner has agreed as part of the terms of settlement to grant a two metre permissive right of access around the northern (Pallance Road) and eastern (Harry Cheek Gardens) boundaries of the upper part accessed from the Wyatts Lane footpath. He will erect a temporary fence across the dividing line up to the boundary of the CS14 public footpath and put a gate in the Pallance Road end for the pedestrian access round the upper part. The effect of this will be that pedestrians will enjoy use of the field virtually as before although they will be more on notice not to let dogs run unsupervised around the field and leaving uncollected dogs' muck. If this does occur, the landowner can consider withdrawing the permissive right. He will also have this right if residents cause damage to the field or abuse the permissive right by using the field in such a way as to cause an identifiable nuisance to other users, nearby home-owners, the farmer who rents the field etc.

As such abuses have not occurred in the past, or if they have, have not been complained about as such apart from possibly dog deposits, I do not feel such abuses will suddenly occur now.

It is most unlikely in my opinion that any planning permission will be granted in respect of this upper part in my lifetime or for many years, but if that did occur then I would assume the permissive right would be withdrawn.

This has been an extremely difficult matter to resolve. The landowner considers he has a strong case both in legal and evidential terms whilst I feel the same. However, I have two legal hurdles to overcome following the Independent Inspector's original directions, one of which follows an important legal decision about the operation of a 2000 Act by which I would need to amend my original 20 years of use period from 1980 to 1984. This would be strenuously opposed by the landowners legal team because if successful, I would probably be able to

"Snow and ice cause travel chaos! Many peoples' journeys are disrupted!"

These words almost became part of our staple diet in the early days of the New Year of 2010. How did you fare? For me personally it just meant that any journey I undertook involved more walking and with a little more caution than usual. There were also, though, the times when my routine journeys became more stressful as I tried to avoid the car slipping on the frozen ice, especially along Gurnard seafront not wanting to end up in the Solent!

The news coverage, the constant attention to weather forecasting whether on the radio, TV or computer and my own experience caused me at some point to reflect that our lives are made up of journeys. There are the obvious journeys, those made to get to and from our destination. Often we use public transport to make such journeys and that can be bus, train, plane or as Islanders ferries. We make these journeys to travel to work or school, to do the shopping or to see the family. We also make similar journeys as we take that well-earned break, looking forward to appreciating the lifestyle of other countries, of marvelling at their beautiful yet different scenery and customs, of enjoying a holiday in a different environment to the one we normally live in. And that doesn't necessarily mean travelling overseas. There are many beautiful places we can journey to in our own country.

These are, what I call, the physical journeys of life. What about other journeys of life, though? Indeed what about the whole journey of life itself? As people carefully negotiated frozen pavements during the severe winter weather, it was often apparent that they were intent on taking one step at a time. The journey of life is just like that. It's a journey where we take one step and one day at a time. Our experiences in life are like the different parts of a journey. Yes, we are all on a journey. For some, the journey will be full of great things – rewarding careers, loving family, active social lives. Sometimes it may feel as if life just couldn't get any better. Others may have grown weary and hold little hope for what each day may bring. Still many others are probably somewhere in-between.

The choices we make along the way greatly affect our journey. Each choice has an impact on our lives and the lives of those around us. And the most important choice we will ever make on this journey is the choice we make about our relationship with God. As we journey through life it is good to remember to take each step carefully, to travel light and to remember the need for something or someone to guide us. Just as ancient sailors used the stars to help them navigate and modern explorers use maps, Christians look to the Bible to guide them through life.

In this connection, we would like to invite you to join with us on another journey. February 17th 2010 is Ash Wednesday and the start of Lent in the church's calendar. How about accompanying us as we journey through Lent into Holy Week and Easter by joining one of our Lent courses which will take place each week from the 25th February 2010? Look out for further details in this magazine. Wherever you are on your own journey, straightforward events, the interplay of divine and human actions, troubling and joyful experiences – all play a part in a journey of faith.

With every blessing

Rita

HAITI EARTHQUAKE EMERGENCY APPEAL

Dear Friends

We have all been moved and challenged by the images and stories following the earthquake in Haiti. Our Christian Aid staff on the ground tell us that the survivors sit in the dust and rubble wondering where help might come from, and how much more suffering they can take. The population had barely begun to recover from the hurricanes that took so many lives and livelihoods and now this ...

Haiti is the poorest country in the Americas with 70% of the population having no formal job, land or tools to survive. Christian Aid supports livelihood projects to help people feed themselves and their families and also prepare for disasters before they strike – Haiti's rapid deforestation has helped to increase the severity of the country's frequent hurricanes.

The earthquake, measuring 7.0 on the Richter scale, has devastated Haiti, leaving thousands dead and many more buried alive. The quake struck 15km southwest of the capital Port-au-Prince. The Christian Aid office building collapsed and our staff had to be rescued from the rubble. They are shaken but safe and are now working tirelessly to help those still trapped, injured and left homeless.

In the area in which the Christian Aid offices once stood 97% of the buildings have been completely destroyed. The need for water, food, and body bags for the many corpses littering the streets is very urgent indeed.

I am calling all the churches, community groups, schools, businesses and individuals across the Isle of Wight to join us in putting words into action and to give as generously as we can to help those left with nothing. We have the capacity to create a wave of compassion across the region. We have done it before, we can do it again.

Your support is desperately needed to provide relief and reconstruction on the ground. Christian Aid has already released £100,000 and we will send more as soon as we can. We hope to raise £1 million for this vital work.

There are many ways in which we can all help to bring hope and healing to the people of Haiti in the wake of this disaster:

Please donate to our Haiti Earthquake Appeal online (see the article on the Northwood Village website) or by calling 08080 004 004 (9am-8pm).

Please consider holding a collection in your church, school, office or local community. You can order emergency envelopes from Christian Aid by calling 08700 787788 or by e-mailing orders@christian-aid.org

Please consider organising a spontaneous event / concert / busk / meal to raise money for this urgent appeal or donate the takings from an existing event.

Please visit our website www.christianaid.org.uk for more information and add this link to your website <http://www.christianaid.org.uk/emergencies/current/haiti-earthquake-appeal/index.aspx> - you will find posters, prayers and a magazine article here to download, print off and publish.

Christian Aid was born out of just such a response to the devastation in Europe at the end of war over sixty years ago. Let's draw on that same ecumenical spirit to demonstrate our love and prayer in action for our devastated sisters and brothers in Haiti.
